

Vinayak Shivaji

Python Developer

CAREER OBJECTIVE

As a Python developer, I am a passionate and highly motivated individual with a solid foundation in Python programming. I have recently completed my formal education in computer science and am eager to embark on a career as a Python developer. My knowledge of Python includes proficiency in core concepts such as data structures, algorithms, object-oriented programming, and various Python libraries.

I possess a strong aptitude for problem-solving and critical thinking, which I have honed through academic projects and personal coding exercises.
